TRANSLATION:

Virgo, rosa virginum
Tuum precare Filium

Alle ye mouwen of joye synge;
Fro hevene ys come god tythyng:
Mary mylde, that gode thyng,
Iam concepit Filium.

Quene of hevene, wel the be!
Godes Sone ys boron of the
For te make us alle fre
Ab omni labe criminum.

Wanne that he of her bore was
In a crache wyt hey and gras,
And for hour synne diede on cros
Surexit die tercia.

Aftur hys ded, in hys uprysyng,
To hevene he toc hys upstyyng;
Ther he dwellus, wytoute lesyng,
Deus super omnia.

Marie, modur wytoute wemme,
Brytur than the sonne bem,
The has taken wyt hym
Ad celi palacia.

Tho the we makun houre mone:
Pray for us to thy Sone
That we mowen wyt hym wone
In perhenni gloria.

Virgin, rose of virgins
Pray to thy Son

All ye who can of joy sing;
From heaven is come good tidings:
Mary mild, that good thing,
Has now concieved a Son.

Queen of heaven, well thee be!
God's Son is born of thee
For to make us all free
From all stain of sin.

When that he of her born was
In a cradle with hay and grass,
And for our sin died on cross
Rose on the third day.

After his death, in his uprising,
To heaven he took his ascenscion;
There he dwells, without ending,
God above all things.

Mary, mother without stain,
Brighter than the sun's beam,
Thee hast he taken with him
To the palaces of heaven.

To thee we make our prayer:
Pray for us to thy Son
That we might with him win
Everlasting glory.
